IN THE MONROE CIRCUIT COURT 6
COUNTY OF MONROE, STATE OF INDIANA

Mark White,
Plaintiff, pro se

v.

Indiana University and
Monroe County Community School Corporation, Defendants.

Cause No. 53C06-2508-CT-002221

Plaintiff's Notice of Voluntary Dismissal as to MCCSC

Plaintiff, acting pro se, hereby voluntarily dismisses his claims against Monroe County Community School Corporation ("MCCSC") pursuant to Indiana Trial Rule 41(A).

MCCSC was named originally to illustrate the downstream effects of Indiana University's scientific negligence on local education. That purpose has now been achieved, and further proceedings against MCCSC would only waste public school resources.

Because Plaintiff's resources are limited and his legal experience is nonexistent, his strategy in filing this case was to resolve the matter quickly, fairly, and according to the law as written. Plaintiff was hopeful this could be accomplished privately, out of respect for his own privacy and with the expectation that Defendants would value theirs.

Now that both the Court and Defendants have clearly signaled a unified strategy of delay and procedure, Plaintiff will shift his own strategy accordingly. Plaintiff will not allow Indiana University to hide behind school children as procedural human shields in this case. Responsibility rests squarely with IU, and Plaintiff will continue to pursue his claims accordingly.

At the same time, Plaintiff warmly invites MCCSC teachers to attend his workshop, where they can explore fun and exciting new approaches to the genetic code. Kids love this material, and it belongs in classrooms, not courtrooms.

Accordingly, Plaintiff dismisses MCCSC from this matter so the case may proceed swiftly, cleanly, and with full accountability focused where it belongs: Indiana University.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: August 26, 2025
