

NOTICE OF DUPLICATE FILING

Comes now Plaintiff, Mark White, pro se, and respectfully notifies the Court that the Motion to Hold Proceedings in Abeyance was inadvertently submitted twice via electronic filing—first at approximately 3:58 p.m. on October 15, 2025, and again at approximately 4:02 p.m. on October 15, 2025 (docketed on October 16, 2025).

This duplicate was the result of uncertainty regarding electronic confirmation of receipt. Plaintiff requests that the Court treat the first-filed motion as the operative filing and disregard the later duplicate entry.

Respectfully submitted,

v.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY, Defendant

CAUSE NO. 53C06-2508-CT-002221

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO HOLD PROCEEDINGS IN ABEYANCE

Comes now the Plaintiff, Mark White, and respectfully moves the Court to hold further proceedings in abeyance pending a requested private conference between the parties.

1. Plaintiff has made good-faith efforts to resolve this dispute without further burden upon the Court.
2. Plaintiff has invited Defendant's counsel to meet and discuss settlement or mutual correction, with the intent of reaching agreement outside of litigation.
3. Plaintiff believes that such discussion would best serve the interests of justice, economy, and fairness, and that temporary abeyance will not prejudice either party.
4. Plaintiff further states that this request is not made for delay, but to permit voluntary resolution and minimize unnecessary expense to the Court and the taxpayers.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

- a. Hold proceedings in abeyance for a reasonable period not to exceed 14 days;
- b. Direct the parties to confer in good faith toward settlement or mutual resolution; and
- c. Grant all other just and proper relief.

Respectfully submitted,
